Rathmullan | @ Home

Established in 2017, Rathmullan Film Festival has continued to grow as a participatory festival located in the heart of Rathmullan, Co. Donegal. Over the past few years, we have become a four-day event that takes place during the February mid-term break and have promoted creativity and encouraged talent in the North West.

Our village is our screen. From local restaurants and bars to churches and schools, we turn them into unique cinemas. Everyone gets involved. From school children to aspiring filmmakers and local groups. We promote community collaboration and creativity, as well as an appreciation for the arts. We inspire and train young, emerging talent through workshops and show them the way into the creative industry from a rural part of Ireland.

THIS YEAR, WE'RE CONTINUING TO DO THE SAME, HOWEVER, WE ARE MOVING ONLINE SO THAT YOU CAN 'ATTEND' THE FESTIVAL FROM WHEREVER YOU ARE AND NEXT YEAR, WE'LL SEE YOU ALL BACK IN RATHMULLAN.

WHAT DOES THE 4TH ONLINE EDITION OF THE FILM FESTIVAL BRING?

From films about Rathmullan, to lockdown projects, to watch parties –our virtual edition has something for everyone near and far! You can take a trip down memory lane with some of our films made in previous years, you can take part in workshops for adults, such as TV Development, or workshops for children, such as Youtube Filmmaking.

Although this will be a bit of a different film festival, we hope you will enjoy the films, workshops and watch parties we have to offer and use the power of the Internet to connect with those you might not have seen enough of over the past year. So, whether you're home or abroad; watch films virtually with your friends & family and be reminded of the beauty of the North West!

WE HOPE YOU FEEL INSPIRED, WE HOPE YOU FEEL CREATIVE & MOST OF ALL, WE HOPE IT MAKES YOU SMILE!
